10. GENERAL MEETING

The Academy shall in each year hold an Annual General Meeting in addition to any other meetings in that year and shall specify the meeting as such in the Notices convening it. Not more than eighteen months shall elapse between the date of one Annual General Meeting of the Academy and the date of the next.

The Annual General Meeting of the Academy shall be held at such a time and at such a place as the EC shall appoint.

All General Meetings other than the Annual General Meeting shall be called Extraordinary General Meetings.

An Extraordinary General Meeting shall be convened by the Secretary General on receipt of a requisition in writing clearly outlining the purpose of the Extraordinary General Meeting from the EC or 50% (fifty per cent) plus one of the Board or 1/5 (one fifth) of the membership of the Academy.

Extraordinary General Meetings may take place immediately after any Annual General Meeting.

11. NOTICE OF GENERAL MEETINGS

Not less than six weeks' notice shall be given of all General Meetings except in the case of emergency when the EC may convene an Extraordinary General Meeting on giving not less than fourteen days' notice.

The notice shall be exclusive of the day on which it is served or deemed to be served and of the day for which it is given and shall specify the place, day, hour and agenda of the meeting and, in the case of special business, which shall include any matter that may require a resolution of the members of the Academy, details of the general nature of that business and will be sent (together with all necessary accompanying documentation and voting papers) to each member by ordinary mail and/or by publication in the EADV news and/or the official journal of the Academy and/or electronically and/or via the EADV website.

12. PROCEEDINGS AT GENERAL MEETINGS

(A) All business shall be deemed special that is transacted at an Extraordinary General Meeting and also all that is transacted at an Annual General Meeting with the exception of the following matters which shall be deemed to be the ordinary business of the Annual General Meeting as follows:

- (1) The presentation of the President's report.
- (2) The presentation of the Secretary General's report.
- (3) The presentation of the Treasurer's report.
- (4) The election of the President-Elect.

The reports shall be about the previous calendar year, but also include an update on the current year and plans for the upcoming year. The presentation of any reports is for information only.

- (B) (1) No business shall be transacted at any General Meeting unless a quorum of members is present at the time when the meeting proceeds to business. Save as otherwise specifically provided, twenty-five members present in person shall be a quorum.
- (2) No motion or resolution of the members shall be passed at any General Meeting unless the subject of such motion or resolution is noted in the agenda of the relevant General Meeting circulated in accordance with Article 11 hereof.
- (3) Any resolution of the members to be passed at any General Meeting shall be passed by a majority of the members voting at the relevant General Meeting.
- (4) A member shall not at any time vote on any matter relating to a contract, proposed contract or legal proceedings between the Academy and himself/herself or his/her spouse or any of his/her ascendants or descendants in a direct line.

(C) If within half an hour from the time appointed for the Meeting a quorum is not present, the Meeting shall stand adjourned to such other day and such other time and place as the EC may decide and if at the adjourned Meeting a quorum is not present within half an hour of the time appointed for the meeting, the members present shall constitute a quorum.

- (D) The President of the Academy shall preside at every General Meeting of the Academy with all appropriate powers and privileges. If he is unable to attend, the President-Elect of the Academy shall preside and if neither of them is able to attend the President shall nominate an Officer of the Academy to preside in their absence. The President or his nominated replacement will, as presiding officer of the General Meeting, have a casting vote.

13. VOTES OF MEMBERS

- (A) Eligibility to vote:

Every Ordinary, Specialist, Junior, Honorary, Retired, Distinguished Corresponding and International member in good standing has one vote.

- (B) Exclusion from voting:

No member shall be entitled to vote at any General Meeting unless his/her current annual membership fees and other sums payable by him to the Academy shall have been paid in full by 31 May as specified in Article 6.

- (C) Validity of votes:

No objection shall be raised to the qualification of any voter except at the General Meeting or adjourned General Meeting at which the vote objected to is given or tendered. Every vote not disallowed at such General Meeting shall be valid for all purposes exercised at such General Meeting. Any such objection made in due time shall be referred to the Chairperson of the General Meeting whose decision shall be final and conclusive.

- (D) Procedure of voting:

Voting may be carried out personally, or by post or by electronic mail as detailed in the convening notice. The details of the relevant voting procedure shall be decided from time to time by the EC and will be outlined on the notice convening such meetings.

- (E) Administration of Elections:

Unless otherwise specified by the EC, the Secretary General and the administrative staff shall administer elections with the advice and assistance of the Academy's legal Advisors and with the assistance of the Nomination and Election Monitoring Committee.

14. CANDIDATES FOR ELECTION

Only Specialist Members and International Members are entitled to stand for election. All candidates going forward for election must be approved by the Nomination and Election Monitoring committee. All candidates must agree to adhere to the Code of Conduct of the Academy, complete the Conflict of Interest statement of the Academy and adhere to the Rules governing the behaviour of candidates presenting for election as provided for in the bylaws. Failure to do so may invalidate the candidature.

15. BOARD

The Board, whose tasks are listed in Article 18, shall be composed of only Specialist Members and International Members of the Academy elected as follows:

- (1) One Board member from each European Country the voting membership of which is less than one hundred.
- (2) Two Board members from European Countries whose voting membership at the Academy exceeds one hundred.
- (3) Two Board Members representing the International Members.

16. ELECTIONS TO THE BOARD

- (A) Voting members from each eligible European Country shall elect their Board member/members by voting in an election of all eligible members in that country administered by the Secretary General of the Academy according to 13(D) and (E) above and subject to Article 17 below. Each candidate putting himself/herself forward for election to the Board is considered as representing the European Country where the candidate has their EADV registration. Each candidate needs to be proposed and seconded by voting members having their EADV registration in the same European Country.
- (B) Voting International Members shall elect their two Board members by voting in an election of all eligible International Members administered by the Secretary General of the Academy according to 13(D) and (E) above and subject to Article 17 below. These members shall be from a country which is not already represented on the EC by the President, the President-Elect, the past President or the other Officers of the Academy.
- (B) The EC shall, whenever useful, make, alter or rescind bylaws relating to the manner in which the EC operates as well as to any activities under the responsibility of the EC.
- (C) The EC may invite members of the Academy (or others) to attend meetings or parts thereof in an advisory role without voting rights.
- (D) The President or his nominated substitute will preside at all EC meetings and in the event of a tied vote shall have a casting vote.
- (E) All members of the EC shall be entitled to vote on all matters.
- (F) The Secretary General shall keep and store the minutes of all EC meetings which shall be signed by the President and the Secretary General and agreed as a valid record by a vote of the majority of the members who attended the EC meeting in question. The conclusions of all EC meetings will be forwarded to the Board once approved. In addition, the Board shall receive on a regular basis at least the reports of President, Secretary General and Treasurer of the Academy.

20. POWERS, DUTIES and PROCEDURES OF THE CEO

- (A) The CEO shall perform all such operational activities of the Academy that, according to these Statutes or to any Board decision, are not under the responsibility of another body of the Academy.
- (B) The CEO shall report to the Board on a regular basis. The CEO shall also regularly liaise with the EC.
- (C) The CEO is not a Member of the EC, but attends EC meetings in a non-voting capacity.
- (D) The CEO shall, whenever useful, make, alter or rescind bylaws relating to the operations of the Academy as well as to any activities under the responsibility of the CEO.

21. ACCOUNTS

At the end of each financial year the Treasurer with the advice and guidance of the Academy's accountants (and if he/she wishes the Finance Committee) shall draw up the annual accounts for the expiring year and the budget for the following year for consideration by the Board, and ensure that the accounts of the Academy are submitted to the Auditors, appointed by the Board, in good time.

22. DURATION OF OFFICE

- (A) The duration of office for each Officer of the Academy, the President, the President-Elect and the Past President is 2 years with the exception of the Secretary General and the Treasurer whose duration of office is for a total of 4 years. Officers of the Academy, the President, the President-Elect and the Past President are not eligible to stand for re-election to any office which they held any time before.
- (B) The Secretary General-Elect and the Treasurer-Elect shall assist the Secretary General and Treasurer respectively, and will become the Secretary General and Treasurer respectively. They are elected during the last two years of tenure of the Officer of the Academy whom they are assisting and whom they will eventually replace. As above, the President-Elect is elected for a period of two years and therefore becomes President for two years. For the avoidance of doubt, the President cannot be re-elected as President-Elect nor can he stand for election to a position as an Officer of the Academy.
- (C) Any Officer may hold any Office within the Academy for no longer than twelve years in total. Board and Committee membership (including Chair) periods do not count.
- (D) The General Meeting may at any time dismiss the President, the President-Elect and the Past President of the Academy provided that this is on the agenda of the meeting, the Officer of the Academy in question has been given notice and has an opportunity to present their case, and a two thirds majority of members voting support the dismissal.

The Board may at any time dismiss any other Officer, CEO, Chairperson and Committee member of the Academy provided that this is on the agenda of the meeting, the person in question has been given notice and has had an opportunity to present their case, and a two thirds majority of members voting support the dismissal.

- (E) In the event of death, severe illness or incapacity of the President, the President-Elect shall take over the function of President. If this is required for longer than a 3-month period, then the term of office of the new President shall be deemed to have started from the time that he took up the position of the previous President.

23. LEGAL PROCEEDINGS

Any two members of the EC and the CEO acting jointly may represent the Academy in all dealings with third parties including legal proceedings.

24. AMENDMENTS TO STATUTES

The Board may, with a majority of votes cast, propose changes to the Statutes. Such proposals shall be referred to the Statutes and Development Committee for formulation and cross referencing and thereafter presented again to the Board for decision with a majority of two thirds of all Board members

A copy of every proposed amendment to the Statutes which is to be laid before the Board of the Academy shall be sent (together with all necessary accompanying documentation and voting papers) to each Board member by ordinary mail and/or electronically. Amendments to the Statutes may either be accepted or rejected but may not be altered or amended by the Board. Amendments to the Statutes are published on the EADV Website, in the JEADV and in the EADV News as soon as approved.

25. DISSOLUTION

In the event of dissolution of the Academy, the members of the Academy will be notified of the General Meeting convened for that purposes and be sent voting papers with this agenda item and shall, if necessary appoint liquidators, determine their powers and decide on the destination of the assets of the dissolved Academy, following discharge of its liabilities. In case of dissolution of the Academy the active assets will be given to other institutions with similar purposes and which will have the same benefits of tax exemption.

26. GENERAL PROVISIONS

- (A) (1) All functions performed within the Academy by its Members and by the Members of the Board, of the EC and of other Committees will be discharged gratuitously and only out of pocket expenses can be reimbursed.
- (2) Upon previous agreement with the Swiss Tax Authorities, a fee can be granted to the Members of the Board or of the EC or of other Committees in consideration of their particular activity for EADV.
