

EADV stands in solidarity with those affected by the earthquakes in Türkiye and Syria

We at EADV stand in solidarity with the people of Türkiye and Syria following the devastating earthquakes that struck the two countries on 6 February 2023, taking thousands of lives and causing significant damage across the region.

We extend our condolences to the families of the victims and all those involved in the search and rescue efforts and sincerely hope for rapid relief to avoid further human suffering.

EADV has made a donation to support the affected communities in both countries. Should you wish to make a contribution, you may follow the below links:

www.ifrc.org

www.redcross.ch