Time commitment of Committee Chairs and other Practical Information

- A committee member who has served 4 years (or more) as a member of a committee is eligible to stand for election as Chairperson of that committee when such a vacancy arises.
- Committee meetings are called and chaired by the Committee Chair and are normally held twice a year during the Spring Symposium and the Annual Congress.

- Committees report to the Board of the Representatives. Consequently, the Chair is required to attend Board Meetings and present, at least once a year, a written (and if requested oral) report to the Board. Such a report will be presented to the Board for formal approval.
- The Executive Committee may, from time to time, request the Chair of a Committee to present an update of their work to them.
- All extraordinary requests such as additional committee meetings, participation of Invited Guests at Committee Meetings (e.g. external consultants), etc. need prior approval by the Executive Committee and specifically by the Treasurer.
- Each Committee receives administrative support from an EADV Staff Member.
- Committee Chairs are considered prominent members of the Academy and are expected to attend Board Meetings and General Meetings receiving waived Symposia and Congress registration, accommodation, travel reimbursement and invitation to the President's Dinner (on the basis of relevant EADV bylaws and financial regulations).
